

TROOPS ALERT; CLINTON STRIKE ENDS

COURT ORDERS
HORROR CAMP
NAZIS HANGEDDEATH DECREED FOR 22 BUCHENWALD
OFFICIALS

BY DONALD DOANE
Dachau, Germany, Aug. 14 (P)—Twenty-two Nazi officials of the Buchenwald concentration camp were sentenced to hang by an American war crimes court today, but Frau Ilse Koch, red-haired widow of a former commandant, who allegedly collected the tattooed skins of inmates for lampshades, was among those who received a life sentence. Frau Koch, 41, is expected to give birth next month to a baby conceived in prison.

Four other defendants were sentenced to life, one to 20 years, two to 15 years and one to 10 years.

Prince Gets Life

The trial of the 31 defendants began April 11, two years to the day after the late Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army stormed into Buchenwald, found bodies stacked like cordwood, and freed 20,000 dying victims. The prosecution charged the defendants with responsibility for the deaths of 53,000 camp inmates and the torturing of thousands of others in the horror camp. All defendants were convicted two days ago of violating the laws and usages of war by their systematic cruelties and mass murders.

Among those receiving death sentences were Hermann Pister, a former camp commandant, and Max Schöberl, former camp leader.

Among those receiving life sentences was Prince Josias Zu Waldeck, a confidant of Hitler and first German of royal blood to be tried for war crimes. Another was Edwin Katzen-Ellenbogen, 64, a former resident of the United States and one of the camp physicians who was first a Buchenwald prisoner but later aided his Nazi captors as a trustee.

Condition Not Explained
Frau Koch, hard faced and red haired, was accused of having shared the camp rule with her husband and of ordering tattooed prisoners killed so she could make lampshades, purses and bookbindings of their decorated skins. This she denied, claiming she and her husband had left the camp in 1943.

One witness claimed she "deliberately wore clothes to incite sexual interest among the prisoners," but that when a prisoner was attracted toward her, "it was her pleasure to have him punished severely."

Fraud Koch tried unsuccessfully to escape trial because of her pregnancy, which never has been officially explained. Her husband was executed by the Nazis several years ago.

Federal Funds Cut
For School Lunches

Lansing, Aug. 14 (P)—The school lunch program reimbursement rate to local schools may be reduced this year because of a 15 per cent slash in Federal funds, the Department of Public Instruction said today.

Michigan's share of the Federal allocation is $1,435,290 for public schools and $228,983 for parochial schools.

The department said it expected an increased participation over last year's 1,150 schools and more than 200,000 children.

Congress Riddled
Labor Department,
President Claims

BY J. W. DAVIS
Washington, Aug. 14 (P)—President Truman, accusing Congress of tearing up the Labor department's prestige, said today while an aide of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach declared the secretary will fight on for "free collective bargaining and free labor unions."

Mr. Truman, at his news conference, listed the riddling of the department as one of the accomplishments of the Republican-dominated Congress.

The statement that Schwellenbach will "stay on the job" and not resign came from John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor, in a speech for the CIO Oil Workers International Union at Kansas City.

Mr. Truman declared the congressional votes which took some agencies out from under the labor department and cut down its funds will not stand forever.

Mr. Truman was asked whether the 1944 Republican platform did not call for a concentration, rather than a scattering, of government activities in the field of labor.

He replied that it did, that he could cite chapter and verse. (One section of the platform read: "All governmental labor activities must be placed under the direct authority and responsibility of the secretary of labor.")

Labor department officials have said the appropriation cuts will reduce department personnel by one-third to one-half.

The new Taft-Hartley labor law takes the conciliation service out of the department and sets it up as an independent agency to attempt to settle labor-management disputes.

Mr. Truman said he contemplates moving the Unemployment Compensation Service to the Labor department. He nodded in the affirmative when asked if the desire is to have it and the United States Employment Service together.

The compensation service is now a part of the Social Security system. While the Employment Service is within the Labor department, many of its functions have been turned over to the States at the direction of Congress.

FORD CIO GETS
NEW CONTRACTPension Plan Embodied
In Terms Of Auto
Workers Pact

Detroit, Aug. 14 (P)—A new contract between the Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers, embodying the motor car industry's first major pension plan, was reported near completion today.

Spokesmen for both parties said they had reached a "meeting of minds" on an agreement covering 107,000 production workers in more than 40 Ford plants across the nation. The "oral understanding" only has to be "reduced to writing," they said.

The pension plan tentatively agreed upon late in May would cost the company an estimated $200,000,000 to put into operation and $15,000,000 annually thereafter.

John S. Bugas, Ford vice president, and Richard T. Leonard, UAW-CIO vice president and national Ford director, said the negotiations might be concluded within 24 hours.

The contract also would provide at least a seven-cent hourly wage increase for all workers.

A clause to provide the union immunity from financial liability for wildcat strikes under the Taft-Hartley act would remain to be drawn up by a company-union committee.

A nationwide Ford strike was averted Aug. 5 by an agreement to negotiate the pension plan and work out a "Taft-Hartley clause."

More than 14,000 auto workers were idled today by disputes and the heat.

COLLISION KILLS THREE

Monroe, Mich., Aug. 14 (P)—Three persons were killed and three injured today in a two-car collision on the wet pavement of Telegraph Road eight miles north of here killed in the crash, which took place after a thunderstorm, were Conrad John Netting, 78, of Detroit; his wife, Clara, 72, and an unidentified woman riding in their car.

ROSES TREATED ROUGHLY

Ottawa, Aug. 14 (P)—The rose garden at Canada's government experiment farm isn't blooming this year.

A farm official explained today that a gardener mistakenly sprayed 1,500 plants with 2-4-D, a weed killer, instead of DDT, an insecticide.

Fires Of Hate Rage
In Palestine Strife

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Tel Aviv, Palestine, Aug. 14 (P)—Fires ignited in the hate of the racial conflict flared tonight above the blood-splattered streets of a no-man's land between the twin cities of Arab Jaffa and Jewish Tel Aviv where six died and 48 were wounded in a fifth day of strife.

Eleven fires were burning and smoke hung over the eastern section of Tel Aviv.

Soldiers with fixed bayonets patrolled three "border" quarters of the twin cities—Manshieh, Cariton and Abu Kebir.

Violence erupted at noon today in a riot of stabbing, shooting, stoning, clubbing and burning throughout the half-mile square of squalid slums where Arabs and oriental Jews live, fight and die together. The eruption was touched off by the discharge of an Arab porter by a Jewish firm. He came to work at noon and found he had been replaced by a Jewish porter, whom he promptly stabbed seriously.

The Jew's friends chased the Arab for two blocks, but lost him and vented their anger on the Arab driver of a truckload of onions. The Arab driver was killed by a bulldozer which smashed in his skull and his companion was wounded.

Arabs who live in ramshackle tin huts nearby watched the attack and then went into action, starting an hour of terror in which gunfire whistled over the heads of troops and police.

The Arabs chased one group of Jews into the Palomar garage and stoned it when the Jews barricaded themselves inside. The Jews fled through a rear door when the Arabs fired the building, a lumber yard, a textile factory and two Jewish-owned automobiles. The damage was estimated at close to $1,000,000.

A Jewish bus from Jerusalem was stopped and the estimated 700 to 800 Arabs stormed it, knifing and clubbing passengers. One Jew was killed and nine wounded. Three trucks were destroyed and one of them burned. Two Jewish automobiles were overturned.

Ambulances which rushed to the scene as police and Irish fusiliers moved in were fired upon by snipers in the Arab quarter.

Police Supt. J. M. Flanagan, aimed only with his swagger stick, led his police party into the thick of the fighting. They drove the Arabs back into an adjacent field, while others of the police party rounded the oriental Jews into a vacant lot out of sight.

A spokesman for Hagana, illegal Jewish defense organization, declared, "No Jew has any stomach for this. These are hooligans, mostly Yemenite Jews, and we cannot control them."

Pepper Of Florida
To Support Truman
For Another Term

Washington, Aug. 14 (P)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) removed any doubt as to his 1948 intentions today by coming out flatly for another term for President Truman.

Responding to a reporter's question at the White House, Pepper said:

"I don't think there is any question but that the president should be and will be nominated, and should be and will be elected. Considering the problems facing him, he has done an extraordinarily good job."

Pepper said he had not discussed politics with the president. Reiterating his opposition to a third party, Pepper said his interest is in "making the Democratic party a liberal party."

LIVING COSTS
BREAK RECORD,
NO LETUP YETPRESIDENT HAS NO
SUGGESTIONS ON
PRICE CUTTING

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Washington, Aug. 14 (P)—New government reports tonight showed living costs at a record high, wholesale prices still climbing and little chance for any general lowering of food and textile prices.

But President Truman told a news conference he hopes and believes a justice department investigation of high prices of food, clothing and shelter will get results. He remarked, however, that it is more likely to point the finger at whoever is responsible for high prices than to bring actual reductions.

The Bureau of Labor statistics gave a final official reading of 157.1 for its consumers' price index as of June 15. That was a record high, 57.1 per cent above the prewar mark, for the essentials that families of moderate means buy in big cities.

The bureau said, too, that wholesale prices went up 0.6 per cent in the week ended Aug. 9, pushing to a new postwar mark for the fourth week in a row. Ordinarily, wholesale price boosts are reflected later in increases at retail.

The consumers' price index uses the 1935-39 average as 100. The June 15 level was 0.7 above that of May 15, 18 per cent over the reading for a year ago and 59 per cent above August, 1939.

The chief executive had no suggestions himself on how prices might be pulled down. And he gave a verbal stiff-arm to a CIO proposal that he call a conference of business, farm and labor leaders to seek voluntary price cuts. He said a labor-management conference in 1945, on labor peace, was a failure.

Prospects of "greater mark-downs" on men's clothing in the next six months were seen by the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers. It said in a statement a survey of 52 stores pointed toward an average reduction of 4 3-4 per cent.

In New York, spokesmen for women's suit and coat manufacturers said price increases are being asked on all popular-price garments. They are following the lead of dress manufacturers, and attribute the boost to higher cost of linings.

As for food prices, the Agriculture department figures the housewife in the next three or four months may pay a little less for meat, fruit, dry beans and peas but a little more for dairy products, potatoes, eggs and rice. Only last March the department forecast a general downward turn in food prices later this year.

Mr. Truman was asked whether anything is being done about curbing exports in view of "the poor corn outlook." He said a cabinet committee on food problems is studying the question.

MARATHON HEAT
WAVE IS EASED

Scattered Showers Hit
Corn Belt; North Rim
Of Nation Cool

(By The Associated Press)
The hot breath of August kept residents of the northeastern states sweltering Thursday as northern breezes and scattered showers all but extinguished the marathon heat wave in the midwest.

The second consecutive day of hot, sticky weather prevailed in the New England states and as far south as Washington, D. C., and forecasters said no relief would be felt until late Friday or Friday night.

In the midwest corn belt area, where some two weeks of hot and dry temperatures have reduced harvest prospects, scattered showers fell in Central Iowa and Illinois. After readings of 100 degrees or above, most of the midwest enjoyed eighties or lower with continued moderate temperatures in prospect.

Early afternoon temperatures in the northeast heat zone included Boston 96, Concord, N. H., 97, New York City 92, Washington 95, Albany, N. Y., 96 and Burlington, Vt., 95.

These compared with minimum readings of 29 at Big Piney, Wyo., 29 in West Yellowstone, Mont., 38 at Butte, Mont., and 46 at Aberdeen, S. D.

The northern rim of the nation continued cool. Temperatures and humidity were high in the southern states.

India Sheds Hated
British Rule; Pomp
Marred By KillingsBY WALTER J. MASON
New Delhi, Aug. 15 (Friday)

(P)—India's 400,000,000 shed their hated role of subject peoples at the clock stroke of a new day today and began a new chapter of two independent dominions with celebrations in oriental pomp and splendor — marred by bloodshed, death and terror in wide sections of the country.

In the high-domed chamber of the constituent assembly, Hindu India's legislators took over their responsibility promptly at the first minute after midnight, and waited impatiently for Lord Mountbatten to appear at 8 a. m., to relinquish ceremoniously his office of Britain's last viceroy and assume the duties of India's first governor general.

At Karachi, yesterday, he rode by flag-waving thousands at a formal farewell in that dusty new capital of Moslem Pakistan, and addressed that dominion's constituent assembly in words of hope for "happiness and prosperity."

Old Delhi whooped it up on Independence Day, a Fourth of July and Bastille Day rolled into one. Thronged jammed fanned Chandi Chouk, the market street which leads to Red Fort, for generations the symbol of British rule, where

ITALY IS GIVEN
BOOST BY U.S.A.Billion In Debts Wiped
Off Slate; 23 Ships
Turned Over

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

Washington, Aug. 14 (P)—The United States bolstered Italy's economy today with a $1,000,000,000 debt cancellation and 23 ships even as President Truman marked V-J day's second anniversary by expressing hope that a tardy peace still can be secured.

In a move obviously aimed at strengthening the Italian government's hand against communist pressure, this country signed an agreement with Italy advancing the restoration of close economic and financial relations.

The two-way pact between the U. S. and Italy, signed by Undersecretary of State Robert Lovett, provides that this country waive all claims against the Italian government for relief costs and occupation expenses.

Of the total $1,000,000,000 debt wiped out, $523,000,000 represented the cost of civilian supplies furnished to Italy for relief by the U. S. Army.

The 23 ships to go to Italy are eight Italian vessels seized during the war and 15 American Liberty ships to replace other seized Italian vessels which were lost.

The agreement also provides for the release of about $60,000,000 of Italian assets frozen in this country.

Motorman Killed,
Score Injured In
Penn Road Wreck

Philadelphia, Aug. 14 (P)—The motorman of the Pennsylvania railroad's Schuylkill Valley Local was killed and at least a score of the Local's Commuters injured today when the Commuter train collided with a steam locomotive at 39th and Spring Garden streets in West Philadelphia.

Railroad officials tentatively identified the motorman as J. D. Klingerman, of Norristown, Pa. He was crushed in the cab of the Commuter train when it collided with the locomotive near the Philadelphia Art Museum. Two hours after the crash workmen still labored to remove the motorman's body from the wreckage.

The injured passengers were treated at Philadelphia General and Presbyterian hospitals.

Babn Heard Crying
Hour Before Birth

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 14 (P)—A rare case of an infant crying a full hour before birth was reported today by Dr. Joseph Crotty, Cincinnati obstetrician.

Dr. Crotty said the baby was delivered normally and that her birth was followed quickly by that of a twin sister. Both infants and mother were reported in excellent condition.

Other physicians and house residents at the Good Samaritan hospital, where the delivery took place, were called in. Dr. Crotty added, and said the crying was audible.

one of numerous ceremonies of lowering the Union Jack and raising the new tri-color will take place later in the day.

But in embattled Punjab, the province that is to be split between Pakistan and India, wide sections of the city of Lahore and five Sikh temples were aflame and the dead were counted at 153 in murderous Moslem rioting between Moslems and non-Moslems since dawn Wednesday. The injured were listed at 136.

The disorders were set off by fears of Moslem and non-Moslem communities that they would be left on the "wrong side" of the line—in Pakistan or India—when a boundary commission makes its expected report. Eastern part of the province is to go to India and the western part to Pakistan.

Authorities said gangs armed with mortars and automatic weapons had been encountered roaming the countryside seeking other gangs.

In Calcutta, even Mohandas K. Gandhi, who is almost a saint to his followers, encountered hostile shouts from demonstrating youths who resented his preachings of non-violence. Lahore dispatches said some of the youths had thrown stones and invaded the residence yesterday where Gandhi had set up a "peace" headquarters, but that the aged leader was not injured.

The dominion status of India and Pakistan is only temporary. Each dominion is free to cut its strings entirely with the British empire, and Hindu India's leaders declare they mean to go all the way ultimately to complete independence from Britain.

The deep-toned chimes announcing midnight in New Delhi made Jawaharlal Nehru, leading Congress party minister, the prime minister of the new dominion. Mahomed Ali Jinnah, Moslem league leader who fathered Pakistan, takes the oath as governor general of that dominion later in the day.

With a stirring shout the assembly already in session greeted the new day which turned one of the world's most ancient countries into the two youngest states and plucked from London's rule "the jewel of the British empire."

It was almost 350 years since Queen Elizabeth had given a royal charter to a group of merchants to exploit India's riches, and two centuries since Britain had begun her rule.

GERMAN TRUST
HEADS ON TRIALDirectors Of I. G. Farben
Accused Of Plotting
War For Profit

BY THOMAS A. REEDY

Nuernberg, Germany, Aug. 14 (P)—Twenty-one of Germany's most powerful industrialists, directors in the billion dollar I. G. Farben chemical trust, entered pleas of innocence today at their arraignment before an American war crimes court on charges of plotting the war for profit.

Three other directors in the gigantic Farben web are defendants and will be tried later.

Trial of the 21 was set for Aug. 27, despite a request by German defense counsel for three to six months delay to prepare their cases.

Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, chief prosecutor, in a 20,000-word indictment, charged that the dye and chemical trust was the heart of the Nazi war effort. He applied a German term for Farben — "a state within a state" — because of the independent status he said Hitler himself had given to the trust.

Taylor accused the Farben directorate of helping plan the war, synchronizing its activities with the military high command, stockpiling critical war materials during the peace years, plundering subjugated countries, and systematically killing off slave labor with overwork or subjecting the laborers to medical experiments.

Farben gave Hitler support from the start in exchange for a free industrial hand, the prosecutor said. Taylor said the trust consisted of 400 German firms and owned its own railroads and mines, power plants and coke ovens. He asserted that Farben's foreign participation in industry involved more than 500 firms, spreading a virtual blanket over Europe and elsewhere.

Once Europe was overrun, the prosecutor said, Farben plunged into the slave labor program, working laborers until they dropped and then shipping their bodies to a crematorium.

IMPORTED CIO
PICKETS TOLD
TO GET HOMEPAY RAISE GRANTED;
BOTH SIDES PRAISE
STATE POLICE

Clinton, Mich., Aug. 14 (P)—Raymond Humphrey, acting chairman of the Michigan State Labor Mediation Board, tonight announced settlement of the Clinton Machine Co. strike which had led to alert orders to a National Guard regiment.

The settlement, which climaxed a day of mass picketing by hundreds of CIO men, provides for a 10 cents hourly wage boost and a series of bonuses based on daily production of the company's motors.

Negotiators reached the agreement a few hours after Gov. Kim Sigler had ordered the alerting of the Guard regiment and similar orders had been given the entire Michigan State Police force.

Sigler said at the time there would be "no question about the state of Michigan maintaining law and order."

May Reopen Monday

Another clause stipulates that the plant will be closed down until the agreement is put to a ratification ballot of the CIO United Auto Workers' local 608 at a membership meeting Sunday afternoon.

In event of ratification the plant will be opened Monday. Humphrey said a Taft-Hartley immunization clause was never an issue in the negotiations and that the union had agreed not to make it a bargaining point.

About two hours before the signing of the agreement, carloads of workers who had remained in the plant since a back-to-work march Monday headed by company President Don Thomas began leaving the company property.

At the same time leaders of picketing groups told their men to return home.

In the early evening the union was maintaining only token picket lines.

The agreement was signed by Thomas and his legal representative, State Senator Harry F. Little, East Lansing Republican; the union's bargaining committee, and the state and federal mediators, at the race track a mile west of Clinton where negotiations had been held all during the day.

Tribute To Scavarda

Senator Little declared to newspapers "we all can agree that Capt. (Caesar) Scavarda (of the state police) did an exceptionally fine job."

William Mc Cauley, CIO regional director, said "the union concurs in that statement."

Capt. Scavarda headed a detail of 6 state police who several times during the day were summoned to prevent or break up skirmishes between pickets and persons trying to enter or leave the plant.

During the late afternoon two women pickets were involved in a brief scuffle with two women emerging from the plant, one with her husband and the other with her boy friend.

The two women pickets were knocked to the pavement, but state police quickly separated the antagonists and drove them away in scouters.

The union, which had demanded a 15 cents hourly raise, was given a 10 cents "across the board" hourly boost.

In addition, the workers will get a 50 cents bonus on every machine in excess of each 800 daily, $1 a motor for all produced in excess of 1100 a day, $1.50 for every

Children's VJ-Day Winners Announced

It may have been comparatively quiet elsewhere in the city as Escanaba observed the second anniversary of VJ-Day without extensive fanfare, but Ludington park was a scene of considerable activity yesterday as hundreds of Escanaba youngsters participated in races and novelty events.

Following the children's costume parade from Ludington hotel to the park, a varied program of children's athletic events was held in the morning.

And adults and children alike enjoyed an aquatic show at municipal beach during the afternoon. Diving and swimming exhibitions were presented. A water ballet, featuring many lovely Escanaba girls, spiced the show, and one of the outstanding novelty presentations was a basketball game in water.

Basketball backboards and baskets were erected in waist-deep water fronting the life guards' house at the center of the beach, and the game made a big hit with spectators and players.

Winners in the costume parade: Best original costume, Wanita Pratt; most colorful costume, Veronica Grenholm; most comical costume, Ernest Pratt; most unique costumes, Donna Sullivan, Janice Harrison, Miss Coyer, Donna Carlson.

Winners in sports event at Ludington park: Slow bicycle race, 10 and over, Buddy Boddy, Jim Dwyer; 9 and under, Junior Pepin, Robert Moreau. Girls' baseball throw, 10 and over, Gale Boucher, Ruth Boucher. Boys' baseball throw, 10 and over, Bud Boddy, Bill Rodman; 9 and under, Bob Rodman, John Clayton; 14 and over, Jim Valentine, Dick DeGrande. Laymen Retreat At Camp Plagens From August 22 to 24

The Rev. Raymond Hillinger, member of the Chicago Mission band, will conduct services and conferences at the annual Laymen's retreat at Camp Plagens near Watersmeet, Aug. 22-24.

The retreat will be directed by Rev. Fr. David Spelgatti, editor of the Northern Edition of Our Sunday Visitor. He has been in parish work for four and one-half years and has conducted missions, retreats and novenas all over the nation, including Chicago, Des Moines and Dubuque.

Ordained in 1941, Father Spelgatti stated, "A retreat is an opportunity for a layman to get away from work and everyday surroundings to spend a few days in a spot of absolute solitude."

Of the 123 men who made the retreat in 1946, 15 were of Escanaba. Officers of the association are E. J. LaFreniere, Marquette, chairman; Robert Michaels, Marquette, secretary; and John J. Bartella of Escanaba, treasurer.

A new feature has been added to the retreat this year in the form of a "question box hour," which is conducted by the director.

The laymen's annual retreat grew from what began as a "day of recollection" for the Iron Mountain Council of the Knights of Columbus. Men from all parts of Upper Michigan and Wisconsin are invited to attend the retreat which is non-sectarian.

John Schoonenberg, phone 2499, has been designated chairman of the local committee. Arrangements should be made in advance through him.

Roller Skate Artists Offer Unusual Show At U.P. State Fair

Blinding speed and flashing rollers will be in order at the Upper Peninsula State Fair, at Escanaba, when Buddy and Jean, internationally famous roller skating artists offer their unusual presentation.

Huge extravaganzas built along the lines of the major ice shows and a realization what a health-building sport it is, has brought roller skating to the fore as one of the nation's most popular "sports" and Buddy and Jean can be credited with a full share of responsibility for this trend. They have performed with all the major revues and have been featured with circuses in this country as well as in Europe.

Their routine consists of a true modern version of team skating, offering original breath-taking spins, dips, whirls and acrobatics. Several of their offerings being so dangerous that the slightest slip would mean a severe injury.

CITY FIREMEN GET 5 CALLS

Bulldozer Used To Make Firebreak On Old State Road

The city bulldozer was used yesterday afternoon to make a 10-foot fire break at the rear of William Brown's residence on Old State Road after city firemen had extinguished two grass fires there, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

The fire break was made to protect homes in the vicinity of Brown's. The first call was at 10 a. m., and firemen were called back at 1:15 after the grass fire broke loose again.

Two other grass fires were extinguished yesterday, one at 2:20 p. m. across M-35 opposite the Federal housing project and one at 2:55 in the Chicago and North Western tie yard.

Also extinguished was a truck fire at 2403 Ludington street.

COW TESTERS NEEDED IN U. P.

Dairy Herd Improvement
Plan Requires 5
Supervisors

At least five more dairy herd improvement association supervisors are urgently needed in the Upper Peninsula according to W. B. Lutz, Upper Peninsula dairy specialist. Numerous dairymen throughout the peninsula are anxious to put their herds on test as soon as more qualified men can be found to supervise the program.

The dairy herd improvement association is a cooperative organization of dairy farmers, usually about 26, who employ a tester or supervisor to keep feed, production, income, and breeding records on their cows. The supervisor visits each herd in the association once a month.

The D. H. I. A. supervisor should be 18-30 years of age, should have a high school education or its equivalent, and should also be reasonably good with figures. Such work is an excellent opportunity for a reliable young man who is interested in dairying.

Mr. Lutz says L. A. Johnson, Extension Dairyman from Michigan State College plans a tester training course to be given September 8 to September 19, inclusive. The total cost will be about $50.00. Anyone interested should contact their county agricultural agent within the next few days.

Forest Fire Officers Apprehensive; 1,000 Acres Burn In Week

Lansing—Conservation department forest fire officials look with apprehension on soaring temperatures of the new heat wave, after fighting 91 forest fires last week and counting up the damage to more than 1,000 acres.

Three-fourths of the loss was in the upper peninsula where the hazard rating is now "No. 6", next to the highest on the fire fighters' danger scale. Much of the upper peninsula has had no rain for three weeks. Some parts have had none since before the Fourth of July.

Travelers in the high hazard areas are being asked to take particular care with campfires and smoking tobacco.

King, former superintendent of the Wells township school, who has been instructor in physics and chemistry in the consolidated high school in Milford, Ill., since 1944, is returning to the upper peninsula this fall to assume the principalship of the St. Ignace high school. Mr. and Mrs. King and their children, Charles B. and Judith, are moving from Milford to St. Ignace about August 25, and will visit here enroute with Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. BUILD CHAPEL AT CEMETERY

Contractor Will Begin
Holy Cross Project
In Few Days

A quiet beauty and dignity will be combined in the architecture of Holy Cross cemetery chapel, latest of Mrs. Catherine Bonifas' gifts to the community, construction of which is to be started by Erling Arntzen, contractor, within a few days.

The exterior of the building, which is to be 81 feet long and 27 feet wide, with a porte cochere extending 24 feet over the drive, is to be cream color random ashlar Mankato stone facing, the soft shade in perfect contrast to the setting of natural pines forming the background of the site.

Interior walls will be of face brick, the ceiling of pecky cypress with beams, and the floor of asphalt tile. The roof of clay shingle tiles will be dark brown and the fleche surmounting the roof will be entirely of wrought iron. Art glass will be used in the windows.

The chapel will contain a stone altar and radiant and the crypt, which also will have walls of face brick, will have a capacity of 56 caskets.

Foeller, Schober, Berners, Sanford & Jahn of Green Bay are the architects.

Tough on Aliens

HOW our rigid immigration laws impose hardships on aliens is being demonstrated in the case of Sirkka Sirri Saarelainen, young Finnish girl, who came to this country to study hospital laboratory work.

Short of funds, she took a job as technician at St. Francis hospital here, which was in violation of the provisions of her student's visa. She would like to stay in America and become a loyal citizen, but she is now so tied up in the red tape of our immigration laws that she does not know what way to turn. If she is unable to obtain an extension of her legal stay, she will have to pack up her belongings and sorrowfully leave for Finland in September.

America has become as great it is because of the fact that millions of people have come to our shores in centuries past with the culture, experience and way of life they acquired in Europe and other native lands. These aliens became a part of the American melting pot, out of which has come a virile and liberty-loving people.

Because of the mistaken fear that immigrants would disrupt the American labor market, immigration laws, enacted by Congress in the past, have placed quota restrictions on the flow of new citizens from other lands.

In another local case, Clinton Sharp of Escanaba, who married a Japanese woman in China, is unable to bring his wife to America to join their four children. Anti-Japanese sentiment in California is reflected in immigration legislation that bars him from bringing this wife and mother of American citizens for permanent residence here.

Laws can never be made perfect, of course. But it is ironical that our immigration laws often bar out aliens that would make better American citizens than many of our native-born.

Are You a Spelunker?

CLAY PERRY of Pittsfield, Mass., chief of the all-American spelunkers, has written a spelunking book of high degree, "New England's Buried Treasure."

What is a spelunker? The word comes from the Latin spelunca, a cave, and Clay Perry, well known in the Upper Peninsula, is a speleological researcher of many years' experience and a recognized authority in this field. This is the first volume of the American Cave Series, which will reveal to the American people the wonders of their little known caverns, quarries and underground passages—estimated to total a million miles in length.

Mr. Perry is a historian and collector of folklore as well as a famous spelunker. His New England book is full of human interest stories about troglodytes—that is, cave dwellers—and cave-crawlers, criminal hide-outs and ancient crotchets which constitute much of the buried treasure of New England. There is even a tale of a marvelous find of gold and silver buried on Cape Cod.

The Army-Navy munitions board has been conducting a nation-wide survey of caves for military uses and possible civilian shelter in case of atomic war. Mr. Perry has furnished much valuable information to Washington on the country's caves.

The author's books on caves are credited with having inspired the founding of the National Speleological Society in 1939. The present volume is published by the Stephen Daye Press of New York City.

Planes for Police

SPEAKING at the meeting of the Upper Peninsula Law Enforcement Officers' association in Escanaba, Governor Sigler announced that airplanes soon would be provided for the eight districts of the Michigan State Police throughout the state.

This is an air age, and both private industry and public agencies are resorting more and more to this mode of rapid transportation. Airplanes, supplementing the automobile and motorcycle, should prove to be a valuable aid in the war on crime.

Airplanes are expensive to maintain and operate, however, and we are wondering if we would be considered too old-fashioned if we suggested that the state police first try to get along with two planes—one for the Lower Peninsula and the other for the Upper Peninsula. A modern plane can get anywhere in the state in a few hours, and anyway prison breaks and bank holdups occur very seldom. Perhaps, our tax bills are mounting because our public servants, in their zeal for efficiency and service, strive to get the latest in everything.

In his speech here, Governor Sigler asserted he stood for the continuance of sheriffs and other locally-elected enforcement officers. To abolish them in favor of one big police system, he said, would be to break American tradition and invite Gestapo terrorism as was the case in Europe. Maybe so, but we believe the governor should admit there is a lot of needless duplication in law enforcement and other governmental agencies today. This is the air age, not the horse and buggy era, and we could consolidate or even abolish townships, and merge two or three counties into one governmental unit, taking advantage of the airplane, automobile, and other modes of speedy communications. We could dispense with many traditional governmental functions, and still retain the American spirit.

Sneeze Time Nears

WITHIN a few days, hay fever sufferers from all over the Middle West will be converging upon the Upper Peninsula to seek relief from their annoying malady.

Just recently, the Upper Peninsula was publicized in an article, appearing in a well known national magazine, as one of the best havens for hay fever victims. This valuable free advertising is certain to bring additional visitors to a region, which has been long known to the sneezing clan.

We hate to confess, however, that the Upper Peninsula is likely to lose its fine reputation, unless something is done to eliminate the ragweed and other noxious weeds that have been taking hold here in recent years. Before the war, enterprising communities conducted ragweed extermination campaigns, but nothing of this sort has been done of late. Perhaps, such anti-ragweed crusades can be renewed with increased vigor in this postwar era, not that science has developed DDT and other potent chemicals that are rough on weeds.

NATURAL LIMITS

(Christian Science Monitor)

"How far will this thing go?" asks a reader with reference to the United Automobile Workers' endeavor to secure a contract under which Ford would agree not to sue the union for unauthorized work stoppages (as permitted by the Taft-Hartley Act.)

This matter of private agreements not to invoke the law stems from one of numerous provisions of the new Act which will take many test cases and court rulings before anyone can say precisely what it means, or that reason we would hesitate to predict just how far or wide such devices may be carried. But we venture a guess that they will not go to the extremes which some perturbed citizens apparently fear. There are several reasons:

In the first place, such agreements which forgo the protections of a law can hardly have the sanctity of contracts drawn upon the positive provisions of a law. The parties to the agreement may choose to abide by their own conditions. But such a contract from a third party who claims he is injured by its workings.

This leads to a second set of controlling factors. Today furnishes no more "normal" conditions against which to measure these private agreements than would the depths of a depression. Today labor is still scarce and demand for goods tremendous. Industry is tempted to concede a good deal to get full and continued production. In a depression, the worker will concede even more to get a job.

Normally, labor wants many other kinds of security, too—for his pay rate, his seniority, against capricious firing—which lie largely within the employer's hands to grant. Unions may not be too interested in contracts with no more than tolerated standing at law. Already the International Ladies' Garment Workers, a union with good employer relations which usually looks a long way ahead, has offered to forgo contractual immunity from damage suits in return for employer acceptance of the union shop.

We said not long ago this matter is one best left to collective bargaining. We would add the opinion that by this process of give and take it will shake down to something reasonable.

TRY AGAIN!

(Detroit News)

The Prosecuting Attorneys Association of Michigan in its recent Mackinac session, duly and unanimously resolved in favor of replacing in country districts the obsolete justice-of-the-peace courts by a system of modern courts. After 60 justices of the peace turned up to fight it, a bill making this reform, though it had the support of the State Bar of Michigan, died in committee during this year's session of the Legislature.

Try and try again, we say, to abolish this relic of "the horse and buggy days."

The kids soon will see that some fruit growers' trouble come in pears.

FETCH, BRING, TAKE, CARRY

Readers from several parts of the country have asked for a discussion of the difference between "bring" and "take." The subject turns up in my mail about every two years in a curious, unexplained cycle. Here is the correct usage, as I have explained it in previous articles.

Fetch: "Go get and bring back." Correct: I am teaching the dog to fetch the ball. Please fetch me a glass of water. The paper has just come—will you fetch it, please? (Note: In these days "fetch" is rather out-of-date, except in reference to dogs, as, to teach the dog to fetch the ball or to fetch (retrieve) game. The word "bring" is now customary in the meaning of "fetch.")

Bring: "To bear by, or to toward the one speaking." Correct: Please bring back the book you borrowed. When you come to see us, be sure to bring the children. When I return, I hope to bring you good news. Please bring me a glass of water.

Take: "To bear away from the one speaking." (Take, of course, has many

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQU CHILDS

Washington—As Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg wings his way down to Rio de Janeiro, he leaves behind for a time the vexatious and ever-present responsibility that goes with his role as Republican leader for foreign policy.

This is not to underestimate the importance of the Inter-American defense conference now assembling in Brazil's beautiful capital. Important differences must be ironed out, with the issue of Argentina and Juan Peron's Fascist-like behavior very much to the fore.

But when this is set against the crisis in western Europe and the deepening conflict with Soviet Russia, it has a look of almost elemental simplicity. Above all, as Vandenberg is actually aware, the supreme task is to get the American people to see how our obligation fits in with the desperate need for recovery and rehabilitation in non-Communist Europe.

—FEARS POOR SELLING JOB—
Always sensitive to what the people back home are thinking, the Senator from Michigan did not hesitate to express his doubts on this score as he prepared to fly to Rio. He is fearful that the job of "selling" on the Marshall plan will not be adequately done and that once again congress will be rallied with the cry of "crisis."

That simply will not work another time, Vandenberg has said with much emphatic pounding of the desk. Any attempt to use a crisis psychology will defeat the very end at which it is aimed.

In no uncertain terms, Vandenberg expressed this opinion to Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman when they met at a dinner ten days ago. Harriman is chairman of the committee named by President Truman to appraise America's resources and determine whether we have the capacity to provide the needed aid for Europe. That committee grew out of Vandenberg's statement in the senate on June 10, calling for an inventory of resources.

What Vandenberg wanted to know was why the committee had not kept the public informed of its progress. Harriman explained that the first steps had been taken. Various subcommittees are gathering data. But at this stage there is little that the committee can say.

It is the sense of his own responsibility in this business that goads the Senator from Michigan. He knows that when the Marshall plan is formulated, in accord with the report of the 16-Nation European committee—expected some time after Sept. 1—he will have to chaperone it through the senate, and he knows this will be impossible if the final result appears to the public as merely another appeal for aid.

—FAVORS SELF-HELP PLAN—
That is why he puts such stress on the resources inventory being made by Harriman committee. That is why he is prayerfully hoping that the report of the European nations will be a self-help balance sheet which will assign to the United States a partnership with mutual benefits clearly evident to the American people.

For the present, at least, Vandenberg has no plans to call the Senate Foreign Relations committee into special session this fall. There have been frequent reports that the committee would be summoned to prepare legislation that would be ready when Congress convenes in January. These reports annoy the Senator from Michigan.

That is getting the cart before the horse, he says with considerable choler. Before any schedule can be set, the reports of the committees in Europe and this country must be available. That is the raw material and without it the legislative machine cannot function.

This does not mean that there is any lack of cooperation between Vandenberg and Secretary of State George C. Marshall. Reports to this effect also produce a choleric reaction in the man who feels acutely the burden he carries.

As a matter of fact, the relationship between the two is extremely cordial. At the end of the session of congress, the secretary of state wrote the Senator a letter of warmest appreciation for his cooperation and the "decisive influence" he exercised in foreign policy. He addressed him as "Dear Vandenberg," which, for the reserved Marshall, was equivalent to a passionate endearment.

After Rio comes the meeting of the general assembly of the United Nations in New York. Next is the Foreign Ministers' Conference in London. Vandenberg shakes his big balding head gloomily. It is not an easy schedule, and always in his mind is the thought that the people back home must be made to understand the program in terms not merely of need but of benefit and the conviction that a working partnership is essential and desirable.

other meanings not pertinent to this article.) Correct: Will you take the children to New York with you? Please take this book home with you. Are you going to take an umbrella with you? Correct: "To transport, as a burden." Correct: Is the child too heavy for you to carry? Carry this bundle of clothes to the attic. We'll have to carry our own bags.

Note: In the South it is not uncommon to hear such expressions as: I carried her to the dance; I'll come by in the car and carry you to town. We didn't have to walk to church—Jim came in his car and carried us. The usage, however, is not as common as it once was.

Likewise, tote (carry) is disappearing in the South, except, perhaps, in rural speech, and especially among Negroes. The origin of tote is uncertain, but one authority traces it to an Anglo-Saxon verb, to tain, to lift up; to elevate. DeVere thinks tote was brought from England when Virginia was settled.

To Bring Back the Glory That Was Greece

Hollywood

Column

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

Hollywood—Jane Russell covered up her famous charms with a high-necked dress, stuck on her dressing room door a note from Bing Crosby reading: "You have my deepest sympathy," and went to work this week as Calamity Jane opposite Bob Hope in the comedy western, "Paleface."

Jane is the pistol-packing mama who becomes the bride of an itinerant dentist, Painless Peter Potter. That's Hope. From then on it's the pretty much a burlesque of "The Outlaw," and "Duel in the Sun."

As usual, Jane isn't too excited about the part, although she admits it is her best break in Hollywood since her discovery by Howard Hughes. Jane just doesn't care whether she works or not.

"If I have to work," she told me, "I'm glad it's this picture."

She sings, too. Jane sang with Kay Kyser's orchestra this winter and wanted also, as a gag, to play the bit role of a blonde night club singer. In the film she slugs the singer in the jaw for making eyes at Hope.

But Producer Bob Welch said "No," the story would fall apart. Keeping the story in a Hope picture from falling apart is a big enough problem as is.

Jane denied reports that she might be called to Washington in the Hughes investigation.

She snapped: "I never went to any of those parties."

There's a reason behind Jimmy Stewart's appearance in "Harvey" on the Broadway stage right now. Jimmy is out to win a new fan following. Those five years of the screen while he served in the Air Corps were reflected in the box office take of "It's a Wonderful Life."

His agents told him: "Jimmy, you have to start all over. People have forgotten you." So Jimmy has started, "Harvey" (for its publicity value) is the first step. Meanwhile, he's making advertising tie-ups like mad, to get his name and picture in the newspapers and magazines. Then he hopes to do a Western to capture the juvenile trade.

They sweat over on the set of "Linda, Be Good," that it's true. A gal friend asked Marie Wilson to join her on a Canadian vacation. "Wouldn't you like to go to Lake Louise and Banff? the friend asked.

"It sounds exciting," replied Marie, "how do you Banff?" Hollywood press agents are now master-minding Rita Hayworth's interviews with the London press. She gave the wrong answers at a couple of interview sessions. The forgotten man of "The Outlaw"—Jack Beutel—and his wife have a date with the stork.

Another father and son team, Roscoe Karns and his son, Todd, will be featured in the next Richard Arlen movie, "Speed to Spare."

"Arch of Triumph" is due for added scenes. The plot still hasn't jelled. Janet Blair will check off the Columbia lot when her contract expires, in eight months. Due to a legal mixup, Janet has been paying out 45 per cent of her salary to agents. The girl has great talent, but so far it has been wasted. She told me: "Over at Columbia they call me the poor man's Rita Hayworth."

Dorothy Lamour is starring on a summer radio show designed to stimulate Army recruiting. If anyone can stimulate the boys, it's Dottie.

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Detroit—Gov. Frank Murphy appointed a three-member commission to administer Michigan's new civil service law and also named three members to the state hospital commission today.

Fairbanks, Alaska—Veteran pilots of Alaska's far flung airways prepared tonight to search for six Russian trans-polar fliers long over due here from Moscow on a course of a possible airline to America.

Escanaba—Eleven of America's crack log cutters will compete in the second round of elimination in the World Championship log-birding tournament at the Upper Peninsula State Fair.

Washington—Michigan's 54 evening newspapers maintained an average daily circulation of 1,175,745 during the year 1935, the biennial census just completed reveals. The five morning papers published had a circulation of 289,231.

Escanaba—A chorus of over 100 voices comprising the Escanaba capella choir will sing at the mass night performance under Noble Cain at the Upper Peninsula State Fair.

Escanaba—With a mammoth figure of Paul Bunyan, legendary demigod of the lumberjacks, standing as their silent referee, 22 of the best log-rollers in the United States, including three from the Pacific coast, culled the pine cylinders Friday afternoon in the opening round of elimination matches, the winner of which will be decided Sunday afternoon.

Lansing—Edward McFarland, chairman of the state liquor control commission said today the commission would suspend issuance of new beer and liquor licenses on September 1 and might not issue others until the start the new licensing year, next May.

Washington—Rapid City, S. D.—President Coolidge has approved a material increase in next years expenditures for national defense, Herbert M. Lord, director of the budget, declared upon concluding an all-day conference at the summer White House. Both the army and navy will be amply provided for, General Lord declared.

Columbus, Ohio—Five union miners and two women stand charged in Belmont county justice court for inciting a riot and assaulting with intent to kill as a result of a massed attack on non-union miners near St. Clairsville.

Menominee—Marshall Burns Lloyd, wealthy inventor and manufacturer who died at his home here Wednesday was buried today in Riverside cemetery with ceremonies in which the entire community took part.

YOUR INFORMATION SERVICE

What do you want to know? We will answer questions on any subject not involving extended research. Legal or medical advice cannot be given. Write your question clearly, sign your name and address, and (IMPORTANT) Mail This Coupon and a 3-cent stamped self-addressed envelope to Daily Press Service Bureau, 1217 Thirteenth St., Washington 5, D. C., for a personal reply. Don't telephone; write as directed.

Q. What is the optophone?

A. A phone which permits telephone communication over a narrow beam of white or dark, red light. It was designated as telephone link equipment or for point to point communication where wire laying was impossible or impractical and where radio silence was necessary. It provides single-channel, two-way, break-in speech communication. Optical range is up to 4 miles in daylight, and with dark, red filter and depending upon atmospheric conditions, up to 7 miles at night.

Q. In the "Catch-As-Catch-Can" wrestling matches of 1936, did Americans make an impressive showing?

A. No. In the eight different weight matches only one American won. He was Frank Lewis, a welterweight.

Q. Are "Three Baskets" sacred to Buddhists?

A. The Trinita, or "Three Baskets" are the sacred books of the Buddhists. Altogether they total between 2,000 and 3,000. The collection originally was published at the end of the 16th century by the Emperor Wan-li of China. At the close of the 16th century (1679), it was reproduced in Japan.

Q. Why does the yolk of an egg tarnish a silver spoon?

A. Because it contains a little sulphur, which at the temperature of an egg just boiled, decomposes the water or moisture on the spoon and produces sulphuretted hydrogen gas which tarnishes silver.

Q. Under the law recently enacted by Congress what is the new order of succession to the presidency?

A. The Speaker of the House of Representatives, an elected official, now succeeds the vice-president, in the event of his death, to the presidency. Previously the Secretary of State, an appointed official, succeeded the vice-president.

Q. Which famous British poet also was a good swimmer?

A. Lord Byron. Once, in an endurance trial at Venice, he was in the water for 4 hours and 10 minutes.

Q. Does the July 1, 1947 deadline in reference to nonquota entry into the U. S. under provisions of the "Sweetheart's Bill" apply to British, German, Irish and Swiss fiancées?

A. No. Since the immigration quotas from these countries are not oversubscribed they will be admitted within quotas.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN

Washington.—The volumes of Lincoln papers recently made public at the Library of Congress greatly enriched the documentary history of the martyred emancipator. But there is one intriguing document in the capital that still remains to be unveiled.

It is in the archives of the stately British Embassy on upper Massachusetts avenue.

The document records an unusual incident during Lincoln's presidency. The unique paper was discovered by the late British Ambassador, Sir Ronald Lindsay, who, on one mellow occasion, told the late President Roosevelt the story. This is it:

During Lincoln's incumbency, Lafayette Park, which faces the White House on Pennsylvania avenue, was enclosed by a tall iron fence flanked by a dense hedge of shrubbery. The park was a popular rendezvous for couples. But there was one drawback. The gates were locked at 10 o'clock every night.

One summer night, after working late with Lincoln in the White House, Secretary of State Seward passed by the Park enroute to his home near by. He was suddenly startled by a whispered cry from behind the thick hedge, "Mr. Secretary, Mr. Secretary!"

Approaching, Seward was even more startled to discover the caller was the British Ambassador.

"Lord, I'm glad you came along," the Englishman exclaimed. I'm in a deuce of a fix."

"What's wrong?"

"Well, it's this way," said the ambassador, and then amid much hemming and hawing explained that he was in the Park with another ambassador's wife. The lady was the wife of the Spanish ambassador.

The predicament of the British ambassador was doubly embarrassing. In addition to the personal aspect of the situation, relations between Britain and Spain were quite strained at the time. Disclosures of the incident could lead to serious international repercussions.

Seward promised to help. He hastened back to the White House, where he found Lincoln still hard at work on the desperate problems arising out of the war. Seward explained what had happened.

"We've got to do something quick," Lincoln said, "but the keys to the Park aren't here. The White House gardener has them and he's gone home. It would take hours to get them, as he lives way out in Georgetown. (By automobile, Georgetown is now only ten minutes' distance from the White House.)

"I tell you what you do. You get the White House janitor, who has a room in the basement. Have him carry a ladder over to the Park and they can get out that way."

That's what Seward did. The ladder was slipped through the hedge to the British ambassador, placed it against the fence on the inside. His companion clambered to the top, and then she jumped down into the arms of Seward. The ambassador did the same, the ladder was retrieved, and all went their ways.

Thus ended that midsummer night's dream.

Roosevelt laughed uproariously at the story.

"How in the world did you ever find out about it?" he asked.

"In the archives of the Embassy," Sir Ronald explained. "It seems my distinguished predecessor was a very meticulous chap. He wrote a full account of the incident and the document turned up recently while we were going through the Embassy's archives."

—FORRESTAL'S OFFICE—

A mighty problem of state has finally been settled. The office of James V. Forrestal, recently appointed first secretary of national defense, will be in the giant Pentagon building, up till now the exclusive purview of the war department. While no formal press statement has yet been released on the momentous decision, it will be as soon as the overworked mimeographers catch up on a huge pile of waiting handouts.

If you think selection of the new cabinet member's office was a trivial matter, you are sorely mistaken. It was practically a life-and-death issue among the Bureaucrats.

Some vehemently insisted it would be a sacrifice for the secretary of national defense to be housed in the war department's building, they insisted he be relegated to the antiquated and grotesque former state department building opposite the White House.

Calmer counsel finally prevailed—aided by Secretary of War Royall. He offered to relinquish his plush office and return to the Pentagon suite he previously occupied as undersecretary. While this was magnanimous on Royall's part, he won't suffer too much.

The only difference between the two offices is that the former is slightly smaller. It is only one block long as compared to the two of the secretary's office.

—"GOD-ALMIGHTY" LEE—

Flash from the Mediterranean theater! Pomp-loving Commanding General John ("God-Almighty") Lee will shortly return to the U. S. preparatory to retiring from the army.

In returning home, Lee will beat to the gun a congressional committee planning to check up on the Mediterranean theater while in Europe. As reported in this column yesterday, numerous complaints have been received by Congressmen from GI's enumerating many grievances regarding living and disciplinary conditions in Lee's command.

Ensign

Extension Group Organized
Ensign, Mich.—At a meeting held in Ogontz Hall, a Home Economics Extension group was organized in Ensign township. J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, presided at the meeting, and explained to the women present what the Home Economics program had to offer them this year. Following his talk, officers were chosen as follows: Mrs. Earl Kaiser, chairman; Mrs. Joseph Teinert, secretary-treasurer. Two leaders were also chosen to give the first lesson, about the first of October, and they were Mrs. Everett Johnson and Mrs. Henry Lundberg. "Glove Making" will probably be the theme of the first lesson. Those in attendance at this initial meeting were Mrs. Andrew Olson, Miss Jean McClinchey, Mrs. H. F. Gustafson, Mrs. Stenack, Mrs. Henry Lundberg, Mrs. Everett Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Teinert and Mrs. Earl Kaiser. It is hoped that a much larger group of women will attend when the next meeting is called since it is not too late to join.

Entertains Friends
Miss Beverly Johnson was hos-

tes to a group of friends Saturday evening at her home. Those in attendance were Misses Irene and Inez Strand, Joyce Lundeen, Alice Gustafson, Marcella Lundquist and Marlene Constantino. Games were played for entertainment, and a delicious lunch served by the hostess.

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lundquist and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Johnson vacationed last weekend on Mackinac Island.

Polly Weeks left Monday for Kawkawlin, Mich. with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lewis, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Vedo Heric of Gwin visited Monday at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heric.

Mr. and Mrs. James Novak left Tuesday for a two-week vacation in Madison, Ill.

Mrs. Randy Soderlund and daughter, Sonja, and Mr. and Mrs. Jensen of Chicago visited at the Henry Lundberg home and also other relatives and friends in Ensign and Gladstone.

Although household washing machines have been used for many years, they did not come into general use until after World War I.

ADVICE GIVEN FOR HAY FEVER

Victims Told Not To Give Up Old-Time Remedies

Ann Arbor—Even if there are new drugs designed to bring relief hay fever and asthma sufferers shouldn't entirely give up the old time tested methods of gaining comfort.

That's the advice of Dr. John M. Sheldon, head of the Allergy Clinic at the University of Michigan hospital. He says the numerous drugs available generally don't cure or bring sufficient relief unless allergic persons using them also observe regular health practices of easing their irritations.

"Gratifying advances are being made with experimental drugs and with those now available for use," he states. "But all the medicaments still need a helping hand."

Some of the ordinary precautions allergic persons can take to cut down the amount of pollen to which they are exposed are:

From mid-August to late September, sleep with as many windows closed as is comfortable. Avoid drafts and cross-ventilation.

Turn down automobile rides, especially pleasure driving in the country. Ragweed and other plants which cause hay fever and other allergies grow in abundance in the country. Traveling through such places exposes one to hundreds of times as much pollen as usual.

Beware of unnecessary exposure to dusts, particularly house dusts. Do not use a broom, carpet sweeper or dusters, but use a damp cloth, oil mop or vacuum cleaner. Avoid all flowers, such as daisies, dahlias, asters, zinnias, and dandelions, which belong to the same family of plants as do the ragweeds. Do not pick, smell or permit such flowers in your house.

During the period of greatest discomfort, go to a region where you will be exposed to less pollen to which you are sensitive. In Michigan, many persons find relief above the Muskegon-Bay City line. If you can't go or can't get relief when you do go, see your doctor.

As for the drugs, treating persons with extracts of pollen to which they are sensitive brings considerable relief to many sneezers. Such treatment generally is begun in advance of the hay fever season. But some persons are treated during the season, the amount of drug given varying each time according to the pollen count.

But the trouble with some of the drugs now available, he indicates, is that while some persons are helped considerably, others have side-effects which are as bad or worse than hay fever, or asthma. Such persons had better skip

Drowning Victim Had Registered To Donate Blood

The late Nick Butch, victim of a drowning tragedy last Monday in Gladstone, had registered to donate a pint of blood in the American Red Cross drive in Delta county to build up a supply of much-needed blood plasma, it was learned yesterday.

Butch, who was drowned about 8 Monday night when his boat capsized approximately 100 yards off the entrance to the Gladstone yacht harbor, was scheduled to appear at the blood clinic in the Escanaba Junior high school gymnasium Wednesday.

Agriculture Dept. Offers Educational Exhibits At Fair

The Michigan Department of Agriculture will present an educational exhibit at the Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba, Aug. 19-24, depicting the various services rendered by the department.

The display is designed to give the public a quick insight into some of the many daily activities of the department's four main bureaus.

A mechanically operated rooster will announce that he has something to crow about and at intervals state something about the department generally. Each department unit is made up around a diorama so constructed that the scenes and pictures change by means of mirrors and light reflections.

The display has a 40-foot frontage made of plastics, glass, polished Michigan maple and walnut, so constructed that the public can readily appreciate the final qualities of Michigan natural products and also see the Department of Agriculture in action.

Modern indirect lighting is used throughout the display. Departmental personnel will be in charge of the exhibit and will be in a position to give information concerning department activities desired by the public.

Conservation Dept. Continues Planting Of Legal-Size Trout

Lansing—Quantity plantings of legal size trout will continue at full speed through August 25, the Conservation department's fish division reports. The trout season, except for Rainbow trout fishing in designated waters, ends Labor Day, Sept. 1.

More than a quarter-million legal size brook, brown, and rainbow trout were stocked in Michigan waters in July. The bulk of the heavily fished waters of the this planting was done in the northern half of the lower peninsula, where about 70,000 brook-

65,000 Rainbow and 60,000 brown trout were released. Upper Peninsula plantings in July totaled 45,500, and about 11,000 adult trout were put in Southern Michigan's few streams that stay cold enough for trout in midsummer.

Blood Clinic Held Last Time Today

Collection of blood by the Red Cross in Escanaba was boosted by 22 pints Thursday. Highlight of the day was a donor, Miss Doris Bricker of Gladstone, who biked into Escanaba to give blood. Upon the insistence of Dr. Clark, the girl was driven back to Gladstone, though she stoutly maintained she could make it back on her bicycle.

Of the donors reporting yesterday 18 were Escanabans, three Gladstonians and one of Brampton. Escanaba's contingent included four unregistered donors of the Liquor Control Commission—John Fisher, Nels Larson, Joseph Chaisson and Eugene Raymond. Only nine persons had registered for yesterday's clinic.

Delta county thus far has donated a total of 108 pints—the number of donors being somewhat larger. Rejections in this area have been at a minimum. The most of those who were rejected had fever, colds or were victims of malaria at some time or other. The Red Cross in collaboration with the Michigan department of health will conduct a clinic again today to increase the supply for the ensuing year. Originally scheduled to close Thursday, the clinic held Friday will insure an ample reserve for local use and help repay last year's deficit.

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 50, registered or not, may report during clinic hours today to donate.

Popularity Of Sport Fishing In Michigan Climbing Steadily

Lansing—Popularity of Michigan sport fishing has resumed its upward climb.

The conservation department reports 607,324 fishing licenses were issued in the first seven months of the year, compared with 593,407 issued in the same months of the record-breaking season of 1946.

April collections were the first in 21 months that failed to show a gain over collections to the same date in the previous year. Excessive rain and cold weather at that time produced a slump in license sales that was not overcome until recent sales, to August 1, were tabulated.

The net gain is due to an increase for the year so far of nearly three per cent in fishing license sales to residents; sales to non-residents still are slightly below those of last season.

Termites Develop Pernickety Tastes

Berkeley, Calif. (SS) — California termites, which in the wild will eat houses and furniture raw and without sauce, develop pernickety appetites when brought into the laboratory for observation and experiment.

However, a dainty dish which they will condescend to consume has been contrived for them in the zoology laboratories of the University of California: Monetary pine en gelée.

Small bits of this coastal pine are embedded in agar, which is

American Traders Arrive In Japan To Start Business

Tokyo, Friday, Aug. 15 (AP)—Twenty-one U. S. businessmen arrived today by plane on the very day that Japan reopened limited trade with the outside world under close Allied scrutiny.

The Japanese themselves greeted the occasion with enthusiasm and great expectations, but high prices and poor quality of merchandise were expected to hamper the outward flow of goods.

Northwest Air Lines, which brought the first sizeable group of American traders to Japan, said it would bring a plane load of businessmen to Japan every day next week but Wednesday and Friday.

Under regulations of the occupation, the businessmen may negotiate but they cannot sign contracts or close any negotiations until Sept. 1.

Sandsucker To Hunt $250,000 In Copper Under Lake Huron

Bay City, Mich., Aug. 14 (AP)—The 135-foot sandsucker Ft. Meigs pulled anchor here today and left on its search for a $250,000 copper fortune believed buried under the Lake Huron floor off Tawas Point.

Capt. William J. McNeil, who heads the salvage expedition, said he expects to make the trip in about ten hours.

The departure of the sandsucker had been delayed for almost a week pending receipt of a barge license from customs officials, but McNeil said he hopes to start sand sucking operations tomorrow if the weather continues good.

Diving will begin as soon as the sunken hull is sufficiently cleared of sand, McNeil reported. The lost schooner carrying the copper fortune foundered in a heavy storm 75 years ago.

Cub Plane Pilots In Greenland On Round-Globe Hop

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 14 (AP)—Two former U. S. Army pilots flying around the world in a pair of light planes landed at Blue West One airfield, Greenland, early Tuesday, it was learned here tonight.

It was understood that bad weather since had prevented the pilots—Clifford V. Evans, 26, of Washington, D. C., and George Truman, 39, of Los Angeles—from taking off for Reykjavik, the next leg of their flight.

The pilots began their flight on Saturday from Teterboro, N. J.

IMPORTED CIO PICKETS TOLD TO GET HOME

motor above 1200 daily, and $2 a motor for all produced above 1300 a day.

The bonus will be paid on a weekly basis.

The alert order to the guard regiment came from Governor Sigler after CIO pickets had reinforced their plant picket lines and state police reported their force already on the scene was insufficient.

The governor acted after conferring at Lansing with State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, Brig. Gen. Leroy Pearson, adjutant general of Michigan, and Victor C. Anderson, Sigler's legal adviser.

Leonard said the situation had been kept in control by his detachment of 56 officers and that 110 other officers were ready to move into Clinton on a moment's notice.

"Goons" On Job But the arrival of hundreds of veteran CIO pickets from Detroit and half a dozen other industrial cities today changed the picture.

Leonard said, referring to some of the unionists as "so-called goon squad members."

Gen. Pearson said he could alert 3,700 National Guardsmen but recommended the alerting of one regiment—600 men—in southern and western Michigan.

"I therefore ask you," the governor said, "to alert a regiment to be available in the event it is necessary to maintain law and order in that community."

"I want you to get everything in readiness so there will be no question about the state of Michigan maintaining law and order."

Only a mobilization order would be necessary to send the troops to the scene.

Michigan Residents Warned Of Deals In Tax-Free Cigarettes

Lansing, Aug. 14 (AP)—The state revenue department asserted today Michigan residents would be "ill-advised" to purchase tax-free cigarettes from out-of-state mail order houses in an attempt to evade the Michigan cigarette tax.

Clarence W. Lock, deputy commissioner, said a number of out-of-state firms were soliciting in Michigan for such business.

The Michigan law, he reminded, imposes penalties of $50 to $5,000 fines for knowingly purchasing

Actor John Wayne Hits $145,000 Top For Hollywood Pay

Philadelphia, Aug. 14 (AP)—John Wayne, who knocked at the Hollywood gates one summer to earn some cash for college, reaching the top of the salary ladder last year in the Republic Pictures lot.

Wayne, both star and producer of "The Angel and The Badman," was paid $145,000 last year, Republic Pictures Corp., New York, told the Securities and Exchange commission in its annual report disclosed today.

Second money man at Republic was Producer-Director Frank Borzage, with a gross salary of $100,000. Actor Eddie Albert was paid $95,000, the corporation said.

Among other reports was: Walt Disney Productions, Burbank, Calif.—Walter E. Disney, board chairman, $62,400.

Game Men Still Look For Chemical To Aid In Census-Taking

Lansing—Tear gas made the foxes weep, but it did not make them come out of the den. Ammonia seemed scarcely to bother them. Smoke from burning sulfur and burning fuel oil had no better results, so game men at Rose Lake wildlife experiment station still are searching for the chemical that could revolutionize the census-taking of small game animals.

For testing purposes an artificial den with one wall of glass for observation and a 30-foot tunnel has been built at Rose Lake, and foxes, woodchucks and muskrats tested in it, with repeated 30-minute doses.

If game men can find a chemical to do the job, they could quickly and accurately count and ear-tag the den dwelling animals in any particular area. At present they must rely on box traps, trapping and time-consuming observation of every sign of the animals' presence.

The ideal gas would be harmless, yet irritating enough to drive the animals from their holes. Appeals to chemical companies have so far failed to unearth any such preparation and technicians now welcome suggestions from any interested chemist.

Held For Attacks—After an investigation by Gladstone police and Michigan state police, Theodore Richard Sherwood, 27, of Gladstone, was held for questioning on charges of assault with intent to commit rape, and last night was lodged in the Delta county jail. Four girls, three from Rapid River and one from Kipling, have identified Sherwood as their assailant, the officers reported.

Explosion In Mine Traps No Workers

West Frankfort, Ill., Aug. 14 (AP)—Officials of the Crest number two coal mine said there had been an explosion tonight but that only a few men had been in the blast area and that none were believed trapped.

Officials at the West Frankfort miners hospital said that no one had been brought to the hospital but that at least two men had been brought out of the mine's blast area. Two doctors were at the mine, the hospital said.

Officials of the mine, owned by the Chicago, Wilmington and Franklin Coal Co., said they did not know if the several men near the blast were injured or not but that they were being brought up. The blast occurred about 8:30 (CDT) tonight when there were about 89 to 100 men at work in the mine.

Grand Rapids Meet Planned For State Medics In September

Lansing—Thirty-two nationally known lecturers and teachers, all leaders in the medical profession, will tell Michigan medical men about the latest advances in modern medicine and surgery at an intensive post-graduate course included in the 82nd annual session of Michigan State Medical Society, Sept. 19-26.

Progress in the fight against cancer, tuberculosis and other common diseases will be presented. The course will follow the annual session of the House of Delegates September 23rd.

Suicide Battalion Of 8 Jap Prisoners Loses 6 To Death

Reno, Nev., Aug. 14 (AP)—Six of an eight-man "suicide battalion" of former prisoners of the Japanese have died by their own hand, Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., told newsmen today. He said he did not know names of the dead or of the two surviving members of the group.

Sixth to die was Vanderbilt's secretary, Melvin C. Roberts, 27, whose death a coroner's jury yesterday decided was "self destruction," but resulted from effects of "his harrowing experience in a Japanese internment camp." Roberts took an overdose of sleeping pills, the jury said, but his death "should be considered an honorable war casualty."

Vanderbilt testified before the jury that Roberts had told him the eight, at the time they were prisoners, had vowed to end their lives by suicide if they did not find happiness in the post-war world.

Grand Rapids Gives Big Hand To Odom, Home Town Aviator

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 14 (AP)—World Flier Capt. William Odom got a big, open-armed welcome from his former hometown here today as he dropped in for a visit.

Police estimated the airport welcoming crowd at 8,000 as Odom and his wife, Dorothy, landed in the plane on which he made his global flight. They came from the east.

Obituary

NICK BUTCH

Funeral services for Nick Butch, 31, who lost his life in a boating accident Monday night, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the family home with the Rev. Fr. Matt LaViolette officiating.

Flowers were in charge of Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, Violet McIntyre and Dorothy Sarasin.

Serving as pallbearers were Walter Godfrey, Norman Druding, Ernest Stanich, Arthur Lange, Joseph Hillwart and Martin Rose. An honorary escort was formed by Frank Sirola, Steve Carriere, Lloyd Gamache and Jack Marble.

Military burial was given the World War II veteran at Fernwood with August Mattson Post, American Legion, in charge. O'Neill D'Amour presided as chaplain. Colors were borne by Archie Cowen and Hilmer Skogquist and guarded by Harold Sjoquist and John Lundmark.

A firing squad in charge of Sylvester Schram and composed of Marvin Ducheny, Louis Broman, John Hillwart, Bob Hart, Stanley Morton, Ray Juneau, Sam Cassidy and Floyd Cassidy fired a salute and taps were sounded by buglers Charles Green Jr. and Warren Peterson.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers believe nagging backache merely, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

'STIQUE MEN CHANGE PLEAS

Admit Illegal Killing Of Deer Near Lake Red Rock

On behalf of his clients, Frank Zimmerman and William Snyder, both of Manistique, Attorney James Fitzharris, Escanaba, entered pleas of guilty in Justice O. C. Estenson's court yesterday to charges of illegal deer killing.

Arraignment was made last week at which time pleas of not guilty were entered and trial set for Aug. 11. Continuation was made to the 14th at that time.

Zimmerman was fined $25 and costs and Snyder $50 and costs. Zimmerman's fine was less inasmuch as previous to the illegal deer killing charge he had been in court for having a gun in game area without permit and had paid a fine of $25 and costs at that time.

Costs of both cases totaled $22 which included jury fees.

It was alleged the men had illegally killed a deer in the vicinity of Red Rock Lake north of Nahma Junction. Zimmerman was in the area in which the deer carcass and gun were found and Snyder was found walking the highway not far distant.

Child Aid Society To Solicit Funds Here This Month

Munising — Alger County residents will have the opportunity of contributing to the work of the Michigan Children's Aid Society from August 19 to 20 when Miss Henrietta MacDonald of Marquette, representing the society visits here.

The Upper Peninsula branch of the society was established in 1919 and since that time has given service to neglected, dependent, or otherwise needy children in the area through providing care in especially selected foster homes. The society arranges adoptions, assists unmarried mothers, and makes investigations relating to children in need of assistance.

According to Miss MacDonald, the Michigan Children's Aid Society attempts to provide each child under its care with the same opportunities as children receive in normal home situations. Medical care, clothing, needs, educational opportunities, a chance for the expression of special abilities, emotional needs are all taken into consideration as well as the providing of comfortable home surroundings for the children.

The 106 children which were under the care of the agency ranged in age from newborn babies to young men and women in their teens, and represented every county in the U. P. Some of these children required permanent care and were placed in carefully studied adoptive homes while others, only requiring temporary care until their own families are re-established, received kind and intelligent and understanding care of carefully selected boarding parents in homes supervised by the society.

Maintenance of this carefully planned program in which so many Alger county residents have expressed concrete confidence relies solely on the contributions of its friends.

The office in Marquette is staffed by Mrs. Wallace F. Watt of Escanaba as acting executive secretary, Miss Stella Racine of Ishpeming as caseworker and Mrs. Margaret Craze of Marquette as office secretary.

The governing board consists of prominent Upper Peninsula citizens including Mrs. R. W. Nebel of Munising. The chairman is Harlow A. Clark of Marquette; Edward S. Bice, Marquette, secretary. Board members are: Michael J. Anuta, Menominee; Frank A. Bell, Negaunee; Charles P. Drury, Marquette; James T. Jones, Gladstone; John Morrison, Marquette; Frank H. Soese, Ontonagon; Raymond Turner, Iron Mountain; and Mrs. R. W. Nebel, Munising.

The Upper Peninsula branch of the society is licensed by the State Department of Social Welfare and is a member agency of the Child Welfare League of America.

Moonstones are considered sacred and lucky in India.

VERY SWEET, HUH?

Berkeley, Calif. (AP) — A Shattuck avenue cafe hung a new sign atop an old one. Result: "DELICIOUS waitress wanted."

Many narcissus blooms have a narcotic effect when their fragrance is inhaled and the name itself is the Greek word for a sleep-producing drug.

Flower names are always written by botanists in Latin so that the references may be understood by colleagues in every part of the world.

Press Carriers Back In City After Long Trip

Five former Daily Press carriers are now under their family roofs from an 8,200 mile trip through the western part of the country.

They were driving in a 1935 Chevrolet which they exchanged for the station wagon they started out in early in June, making the trade in Los Angeles after their former vehicle had suffered in a mishap not far from the Grand Canyon.

The trip, they readily agree, was a thrilling one, and they all declare the grandest sight that met their eyes in the long, long trek was Lake Michigan as they neared the home stretch.

Much of the area they traversed was hot. South Dakota and Wyoming were particularly torrid and the current 80 degree temperatures in Manistique are cool in comparison.

En route, they stopped and visited several former Manistique residents.

The states traversed were Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, South Dakota, Minnesota, and Michigan. They also made a brief stopover in Mexico.

In the party were Pat Shaw, Coy Tyrrell, William Price, Chuck Lundstrom and Bill Eck. Shaw came by rail, in advance of the others, in order to start training for Saturday's All-Star game at Negaunee.

City Briefs

Barbara Benedict, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. William Nelson, returns today to her home in Chicago, Ill., after a month's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Friday of Detroit were guests this week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cooper and Mrs. Alex Cooper. They were enroute home from a visit in other parts of the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, Lake street, are the parents of a daughter, Rae Ann, born Sunday, Aug. 10, at the Shaw hospital. The baby, the first in the family, weighed six pounds and 15 ounces. Mrs. Cooper is the former Orpha Noe.

Herman Landis and son, Donald, of Chicago, are visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aldred Farley, North Third street, and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauritz Drevdahl and daughters, Georgiana and Jean Marie, of Milan are spending several days visiting here at the C. M. Drevdahl home on Arbutus avenue.

Misses Lois Brown and Marian Crawford of Sault Ste. Marie are visiting here at the home of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Berg. North Fourth street, and with other relatives.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Murphy, 109 North Second street, were Mr. and Mrs. William Rawland and Delore Bedore of South Bend, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Frisette of Detroit.

Gust Peterson, Range street, is a patient at St. Francis hospital in Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. James Larson are the parents of a son, weighing seven pounds and one ounce, born Thursday, Aug. 14, at the Shaw hospital. The baby has been named Patrick James. Mr. Larson is the former Virginia Gray.

Mary Jean Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elliott, Delta avenue, is a patient at St. Luke's hospital, Marquette.

Mrs. Orville Norton of Saxon, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Norton and son, of Ironwood, visited here a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norton, 334 Chippewa avenue.

AUGUST 26 IS ELECTION DAY

Ballots For Special Election Now With County Clerk

Ballots for the special congressional election on Tuesday, Aug. 26, to determine the successor to the late Fred Bradley, are now in the hands of County Clerk G. Leslie Bouschor who announces that they, in turn, will be in the hands of city and township clerks by next Monday.

Those ballots are so placed a week ahead of the election date to enable those who wish to cast absent voters' ballots may do so.

There are but two names on the ballots, that of Charles E. Potter, Republican nominee; and Harold D. Beaton, the Democratic candidate. No other issue is up for consideration at this election.

Locally the voting precincts will be the same as they were in the recent primary election and the same personnel will be in charge.

for overseas duty in China. He has been stationed for some time in San Francisco.

Arthur Allen is returning tonight to Ba-ta-wa-ga-ma Boys' Camp at Crystal Falls where he is an instructor, following a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen, Delta avenue.

Rev. B. J. P. Schevers Notes 50th Anniversary Of His Ordination Today

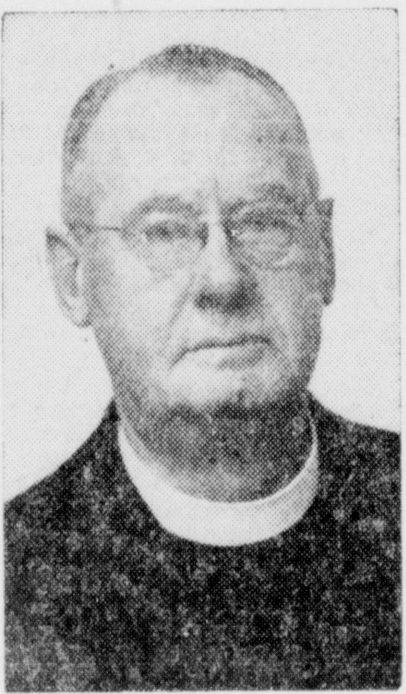

The Rev. Father B. J. P. Schevers, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, today is observing the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination into the Roman Catholic priesthood.

Church dignitaries from all parts of the diocese will be present at the solemn high mass at 11 this morning that marks the golden jubilee observance. It had been hoped that Father Schevers would be the celebrant, but due to the fact that the venerable pastor has been in very poor health and up to a few days ago was a patient at St. Vincent's hospital in Green Bay, Wis., this was not to be. He will, however, be in the sanctuary for the service and will attend the noon dinner for 50 visiting clergy at the Corson home following the mass.

Also in observance of the anniversary will be a parish dinner Sunday evening at the new high school gymnasium for approximately 400 guests.

Abbott-General Here

Several church dignitaries will be here for the mass and dinner program Friday. They will include the Rt. Rev. Abbot-General Hubert A. Noots, of Rome, Italy, who is in the United States to visit abbots of the Norbertine Order, of which the Rev. Father Schevers is a member; the Rt. Rev. Abbot B. H. Penning, founder of the order in America, of St. Norbert's Abbey, West DePere, Wis.; the Rt. Rev. Abbot Co-adjutor S. M. Killeen, of West DePere; the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph L. Zryd, administrator of the Roman Catholic diocese of Marquette; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Matthias Jodocy, Marquette; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John T. Holland, Marquette; the Very Rev. Dennis M. Burke, prior of St. Norbert's Abbey; the Rev. Dr. M. J. McKeough, instructor in philosophy at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C.; the Very Rev. Joseph Guertin, dean of the Sault Ste. Marie deanery, and the Very Rev. Alphonse C. Coignard, dean of the Delta-Schoolcraft deanery.

Celebrant at the jubilee solemn high mass will be the Rev. Robert Sromovsky, O. Praem, native of Manitowish, who is a member of St. Norbert's college faculty. Deacon will be the Rev. Dr. McKeough, and sub-deacon will be the Rev. Martin Melican, pastor of St. Patrick's church in Escanaba, who also was born and reared in Manitowish. The Rev. Clifford Nadeau, of Engadine, will be master of ceremonies.

Seated with the Rev. Father Schevers in the sanctuary will be the Rt. Rev. Abbot-General Noots, the Rt. Rev. Abbot Penning, the Rt. Rev. Abbot Co-adjutor Killeen and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Zryd.

The sermon will be given by the Very Rev. Dennis Burke. Plan Speaking Program

At the dinner for visiting clergy at the Corson home, the Very Rev. Joseph Guertin, of Sault Ste. Marie, will be toastmaster. There will be brief talks by the Rev. Cornelius J. Kirkfleit, O. Praem, representing St. Norbert's Abbey; the Very Rev. Alphonse C. Coignard, representing the deanery; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph L. Zryd, representing the diocese; the Rt. Rev. Abbot-General Hubert A. Noots, representing the Norbertine Order, and by the Rev. Father Schevers.

A. J. Cayia will be toastmaster at the dinner Sunday evening. The program will include talks by William J. Sweeney, representing the laity of the parish; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Zryd, the Rev. Martin Melican, and a member of the Norbertine Order whose name was not available Thursday. There will also be vocal selections, and during the dinner Carl Olson and Norman Martin will play violin selections accompanied by Miss Geraldine Gorsche.

Relatives of the Rev. Father Schevers who will attend the celebration will include Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Schevers, Oneida, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. P. Bessers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McGillan, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Charles, all of Green Bay. Among priests coming from long distances for the affair will be the Rev. Gerald Heiptas, of Cut Bank, Mont.

Mrs. A. J. Cayia is chairman of the arrangements for the dinner for visiting clergy, and Mrs. William Barker and Mrs. Alvin Nelson are co-chairmen of the parish banquet. Thomas Mellon and Joseph Gardapee are co-chairmen of the men's committee.

Tickets for the dinner are available at the office of the Martin Insurance Agency, Cedar street.

Big Spring Will Be On Display At U. P. State Fair

Kitch-iti-ki-pi, in miniature, will again be featured at the Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba.

For the fourth consecutive year this very realistic attraction will be shown to the thousands of fair patrons, and John I. Bellaire, local authority on the Big Spring, will be on hand each day and evening of the exposition to explain the unusual features of "The Mirror of Heaven" and relate the Indian lore that has been inspiration to poets and authors.

The showing of the spring will mean more this year because the Big Spring is pictured on the cover of this year's Lure Book.

The model is being constructed by Mr. Bellaire.

Swing Wing Of City Band Will Present Concert

The Manistique summer municipal band will present another of its weekly concerts tonight at Triangle park. The concert will begin at 7:30.

As an added feature, the band will feature the music of the "Swing Wing," an instrumental quartet from the band which will present several popular numbers. This group made its initial appearance on the excursion boat last Sunday and was received very enthusiastically. Members of the Swing Wing are: Steve Borko, accordion; Dan Giovannini, bass; Herb Peterson, trumpet; Ray Norberg, trombone.

The program follows: National Emblem, Bagley. The Albanian, R. B. Hall. Al and Hal, cornet and trombone duet, Bennett. Pivot Man, Bennett. Sheik of Araby, arr. by Olivad. Yare Overture, Bennett. Michigan State College Fight Song, Lankey. The High Tower, Circus March, Bennett. Heartaches, Strip Polka, The Waltz You Saved For Me, In My Adobe Hacienda, the Swing Wing. New Colonial March, R. B. Hall.

Stadium Lights To Have Tryout Today

The lighting system at the football stadium is now installed and the lights will be turned on today for formal tryout, Harvey Quick, contractor announces.

The lights are on 60-foot steel standards. The student activity association of the high school is sponsoring this facility.

Stars and Stripes Forever, Sousa.
